Carpets & Rugs

Furnishing Your Home

is just as important and should be as carefully studied as the plans of the house. Harmony of Floor Coverings and Furniture with the interior wood work and wall decoration should be kept in mind; not a random purchase here and there without regard to matching.

The floor coverings—carpet and rugs—are essentially a part of the room furnishing.

All must be in harmony.

It is practically impossible for you to get the right rug or the correct carpet for that room you are furnishing from a small or incomplete stock.

We continually carry a large and varied line of rugs and carpets, hundreds of different designs, patterns and colors—from which you may be practically sure of finding just the thing you require.

Our Prices Are as Reliable as the Quality of Our Merchandise

A CIRCLE IS PRINTED ON TEN ANSWER BOOK PAGES

Fit the Pictures That Go on Them to the Answer Book in the Catalogue.

First of all, you contestants noticed that there are ten titles in the contest catalogue that have stars printed opposite them.

And The Times-Dispatch announced that these ten starred titles are ten of the seventy-seven correct titles.

Then you contestants began to discover that there are ten pages of the Answer Book which have small circles printed on them. So you began to inquire, "What do these circles mean?"

And some wise contestants wrote in to find out what these circles mean. There is a connection between the ten starred titles and the ten circles.

There is. The Times-Dispatch announced to-day that the ten pictures which go on the ten circled Answer Book pages are the ten pictures represented by the ten starred titles.

That's some little announcement, isn't it?

Fit the ten starred titles to the ten pictures which go on the circled Answer Book pages. That will not be hard to do, of course. It is not difficult to fit ten stated titles to ten stated pictures.

And that leaves only sixty-seven pictures to which to find the correct titles.

Turn to your catalogue now and look at the ten pictures which have stars printed opposite them. Then turn to your Answer Book and see what pages have a small circle printed at the top. You know that the ten starred titles are the correct titles to the ten pictures which go on the circled Answer Book pages.

The circles appear right at the tops of the upper pages, so it will not be difficult to find them.

Realize what these circles do? They actually point out to you the very ten pictures which are represented by the ten starred titles.

When the ten starred titles were announced you simply had ten of the correct titles, and had to fit them to ten of the seventy-seven pictures.

But now you are told ten of the circles in the Answer Book, told the very ten pictures which represent them.

Tarry with that thought a moment. Your catalogue and Answer Book contains ten of the seventy-seven correct titles and points out ten of them to you. The Answer Book not only points out to you the ten pictures which go on the ten circled Answer Book pages, but it also tells you what ten pictures the ten starred titles fit.

BAGPIPE CRAZE IS COMING HERE SOON

Americans in London Eager to Take Up Fashion Now Sweeping England.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
London, September 6.—There is a craze to learn to play the inspiring if not always tuneful bagpipes, and Americans are among the most eager to master Scotland's national musical instrument.

The Prince of Wales set the fashion. He learned the bagpipes at Oxford and now delights his Scottish friends by playing "The Flowers of the Forest" and "The Land of the Leal" in a way to touch their heartstrings. Ever since Andrew Carnegie has been Laird of Skibo his pipers have awakened him of a morning and played at his board when he dined.

"Usually I have about thirty pupils a year, but at the moment I have as many as sixteen at once," said O. H. Starck, the piper-major of the London Irish titles, who makes and teaches the bagpipes.

"An American told me the other day I ought to go out there. 'There's a fortune for you there just now,' he said. 'People are crazy to learn the bagpipes and to hear them played.' Allen Doonee was one of my pupils; he is making much money as a piper in America."

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW MEETS

Twenty-Eighth National Convention Opens in New York on October 1.

New York, September 6.—The twenty-eighth national convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of the Episcopal Church will convene in New York City on Wednesday, October 1, and remain in session until Sunday, October 5. Coming, as it does, the week before the convocation of the general convention of the church, this gathering of laymen from all parts of the United States is awakening more interest than usual. The general convention itself will in no way compare with the brotherhood convention in numbers, for while the former will have but about 612 delegates, the latter will, in all probability, exceed the 5,000 mark.

The brotherhood leaders have taken full advantage of the fact that the national convention is so near, and many who will take a leading part in the church's general council will also be heard at the great public mass meetings in Carnegie Hall. There are a number of speakers who are known for their work in the national movement in the church—such men, for example, as Bishop Brent, of the Philippines, chairman of the International Opium Conference; Dean Sumner, of Chicago, who worked on the Chicago Vice Commission has attained a national prominence, and George Wharton Pepper, of Philadelphia, the distinguished lawyer and a leading figure in the House of Deputies. Bishops Greer, Burch, Burgess, Gailor, Lister, Lanes, Moreland, Rhineland and Woodcock all have places on the program.

The religious services will be held in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, the Church of Zion and St. Timothy, and the magnificent new St. Thomas's Church on Fifth Avenue, while the great public mass meetings—always a leading feature of brotherhood conventions as before mentioned, will go to Carnegie Hall.

The long varied program is of such interest as to appeal to all Christian workers. It is an inspiration in itself to see this great body of laymen in session, working on the furtherance of "Christ's kingdom among men." The services and meetings are open to the public generally, and a full program has been issued which can be had by applying to F. G. Munson, Esq., 2 Rector Street, New York City.

GERMAN EMBASSY'S WASHINGTON HOME

Count von Bernstorff to Choose
Finally From 265 Plans Submitted.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Berlin, September 6.—The German government has met with an unexpected large response to its request for competitive designs for the new embassy building in Washington; 265 designs have been submitted.

The committee to award prizes, amounting to $50,000, is already in session. Probably the result will be announced in a few days. The head of the committee is the well-known German architect, Professor Franz Schaefer, but it is expected that Ambassador von Bernstorff, who will be called in consultation, will have a large voice in the final selection.

Prince Wilhelm and his wife, the Kaiser's daughter, are also interested in the building, which will be a landmark in Washington.

KAISER'S FOUR SONS INCOG. IN ENGLAND

German Crown Prince, His Wife and Three Brothers Wander
Where They List.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
London, September 6.—Four of Emperor William's sons have invaded England recently. They are the aristocratic and popular Prince of Wales, who is just as well as some ultra-Juggles would be crying "German spies!"

The Kaiser's four sons are traveling for a fortnight as the Count and Countess of Hohenstein and the Prince and Princess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

The Kaiser's four sons are traveling for a fortnight as the Count and Countess of Hohenstein and the Prince and Princess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

Young Prince Joachim, who is the five-year-old fourth son of the Kaiser, has been seen in London, and his parents, the Kaiser and Kaiserin, are expected to arrive in London on Monday.

REGULAR PASTORS TO FILL PULPITS

Pulpits in the city churches to-day will be filled, with a few exceptions, by the regular pastors, most of them having returned from their vacations last week. To-day will also mark the return of many church-goers from the seashore and mountains. Union services, which have been held on account of the slim attendance during the summer months, will be discontinued, to give place to the regular services in most churches. In nearly every church there will be preaching both morning and evening.

Changes have been made in the choir and music departments of some of the churches. Professor Benjamin J. Potter has been engaged to take charge of the organ and choir in the Church of the Holy Comforter for a period of three months. He will play the organ this morning and will give a short recital at the evening service. Miss A. Swiss, of 1819 Grove Avenue, who is well known in choir work, has been appointed permanent organist. She will begin, January 1, 1914, at the Church of the Holy Comforter, where she has been organist since her marriage to Dr. A. Vaughan Colston, who has returned to the rectory from a vacation, will resume his position as organist. The new choir of Grove Avenue Baptist Church will be heard this morning for the first time, and will continue all season. Herbert L. Reese will be the organist and choir master. He will have associated with him Mrs. George K. Harper, soprano; Miss Geline MacDonald, contralto; Haddon S. Watkins, tenor; Joseph S. White, basso, and Master Forest Cubbon, boy soprano. Mrs. Harper is well known as a choir singer, having served several of the large churches of the city, while Miss MacDonald made a reputation at the Second Baptist Church. Master Forest Cubbon started with the All Saints choir, where he is still singing. The newly organized choir will sing in Centenary Methodist Church to-day. Dr. W. J. Young will preach at the morning service on the subject, "When the Church Always Falls." A study of some present tendencies, "The Individual Supreme," will be his evening theme.

Rev. William Lockhart Ball, who has returned from his vacation, will continue to-day in Tabernacle Baptist Church at both services. His morning subject will be "The One That Binds," and his evening theme, "The Gulf That Divides."

Rev. Sparks W. Melton, of Norfolk, who is visiting in the city, will preach at both services in the Second Baptist Church to-day.

Dr. H. D. C. MacLachlan has returned from his vacation of about six weeks and will conduct both services in Seventh Street Church to-day. "In Time With the Infinite" will be his morning subject, and he will preach on "The Christian Heritage" this evening.

Members of the Randolph Street Bible Class are requested by the secretary, J. C. Wilson, to be present this morning, as questions of importance will be discussed. Rev. W. E. Robertson, pastor of the church, will preach at both services.

Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, D. D., having returned from his vacation, will preach this morning at 11 o'clock in the Church of the Covenant.

There will be preaching morning and evening in Union Station Methodist Church to-day by the pastor, Dr. W. Ashbury Christian. His morning subject will be "Jesus Only," and in the evening, "Breaking the Box of Ointment—Why This Waste?"

"The Modern Dance" is the subject on which Rev. Frank L. Wells will preach at Broad Street Methodist Church to-night.

The pastor, Rev. George W. Kemper, will preach this morning in Hanover Avenue Christian Church on the subject, "Four Essentials." Rev. J. Y. Fair will conduct the union services, to-day.

which will be held in the church at 8:15 o'clock.

In Colonial Place Christian Church there will be preaching following the Sunday school at 3 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. L. E. Grosesloves.

Dr. James W. Morris will conduct services in Monumental Church this morning at 11 o'clock and this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Regular services will be held this morning in First Church of Christ, Scientist. The subject will be "Man."

Dr. S. C. Mitchell, president of the Medical College of Virginia, will address the First Baptist Baraca Class this morning at 10 o'clock.

Pastor F. A. Hall, of Indianapolis, Ind., will preach this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Orpheum Theatre, at the International Bible Students' congregation meeting. He will take for his subject "Christ's Second Coming—Why, How, When?"

General Secretary McKee will conduct a conversational study of Dr. King's book, "The Fight for Character," this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the lobby of the Young Men's Christian Association. The study will open with a service of songs, and will be dismissed at 4:30 o'clock.

Dr. W. C. James, who has been away from the city for several weeks, will preach at Grove Avenue Baptist Church this morning. His subject to-night will be "Over Her Sens and Philippine Trails," illustrated.

Rev. William Thomas Hall, temporary pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church, will preach at both services to-day.
